

Statement

23 June 2024

Justice Africa Sudan welcome the African Union (AU) Peace and Security Council Communique Adopted on their 1218 meeting at the level of head of states on 21 June 2024 on consideration of the situation in Sudan, and their endeavour to end the ongoing war by bringing the leaders of the warring factions, Sudan Armed Forces (SAF) and the Rapid Support Force (RSF) together to discuss the ways to end this conflict and move Sudan back to transition to peace, democracy and civilian rules. We also support their effort to convene a meeting for Sudanese civil and political forces to discuss their engagement on the process of ending the war and the transitional arrangements.

Sudan and Sudanese people are facing the most serious security and humanitarian crisis which represented threat the lives of over twenty million people in all Sudanese's state We urge member of the AU peace and Security council:

- To use their power under Article 4 of the AU Constitutive Act to force the warring parties to end this war as it represents serious threat to Sudan territorial integrity and threat to the regional and international peace and security and use all forces in its disposal to end it in collaboration with the international community.
